Dear Hunter Mill Friends,

Back in the 1980's the Reston Black Focus, a civic organization, developed the idea of a sister city relationship with Nyeri, a county in Kenya. The main emphasis was on education. A series of interesting events took place. Restonian Johnny Early and her then spouse, a Peace Corp worker, were living in Nyeri and were able to acquire land for a camp for children with disabilities. Through that experience a delegation of special education teachers from Nyeri came to Reston to visit schools. They received training in special education. However, this partnership became inactive in the early 1990s.

In view of the prior relationship between Nyeri and Reston, two Reston residents, formerly from Nyeri, approached the Hunter Mill District office seeking help in restoring the Nyeri, Kenya partnership in Reston.

Speed forward and I am pleased to note that a delegation from Nyeri, Kenya arrived in Fairfax County on June 4th. County staff members from Health and Human Services, Planning and Zoning and Solid Waste shared information across their disciplines. They toured the Reston Town Center and thoroughly enjoyed the views, the people, and the food. They were excited about Fairfax County and anxious to learn as much as possible. County staff has met with them to discuss an array of issues ranging from Health and Human Services, to Planning and Zoning.

This cooperation will be of mutual benefit to Reston and Nyeri. Both localities will exchange ideas and best practices on governing issues. A great start for a long term future relationship.

Have a safe, happy 4th of July!

Made in Fairfax - Small-Scale Production Forum

Furniture, custom jewelry, textiles, baking, coffee roasting and 3D printing - these are all examples of the kinds of artisanal manufacturing and small-scale production that are on the rise and bring new vibrancy to the communities where they reside. Fairfax County is considering how to support and grow this business sector that is becoming increasingly popular in today's "maker" culture.

Please join us for the Made in Fairfax Forum to hear from Ilana Preuss of Recast City - a national leader in the small-scale production industry - and discuss how Fairfax County's creative entrepreneurs, property owners and residents could benefit from this innovative blend of economic and community development. The forum is open to all residents, businesses and property owners/investors in Fairfax County.

Lake Fairfax Park Master Plan Revision Meeting

You are invited to attend a public comment meeting on Wednesday, June 20, 7 pm at South Lakes High School lecture hall (11400 South Lakes Drive, Reston) to learn about the draft Lake Fairfax Park Master Plan Revision.

The Park Authority held a public information meeting back in November 2017, to begin the process for updating the Lake Fairfax Park Master Plan and to collect the public's input and comments for future changes to the park. The input from this meeting was collected and used to help guide the draft master plan.

The Master Plan considers parcels that were recently added to the park, changes to park facilities, and provides a framework for guiding the future of the park. The Park Authority will again gather input on the plan from community members in a comment session following the presentation.

Visit the Lake Fairfax Park Master Plan Revision to learn more.

Dispose or Deactivate Unwanted Medicines

More than 1200 Virginians died in 2017 from an opioid overdose, including fentanyl and heroin, and in the first three months of 2018 the death toll increased more than 30%. At the same time emergency departments reported more than 10,000 visits for opioid and heroin overdoses. Like most of the country, Fairfax County has seen a great uptick in the abuse of prescription drugs, which has made the Operation Medicine Cabinet Clean Out partnerships so important. For the 9th year, Fairfax County Government, police, grocers and pharmacies have teamed up to host a safe drop off day for unused and expired medications. This year more than 3500 lbs were turned back in the annual collection day held on April 28 – a 36% increase.

Fairfax County now has places to drop off drugs in between annual collections. People can use the medicine disposal drop box located at any of the public controlled substance disposal locations. Locations in/near Hunter Mill are:

- Kaiser-Permanente Reston – 1890 Metro Center Drive, Reston
- Spectrum Healthcare Resources – Fairfax Health Center – 10580 Arrowhead Drive, Fairfax
- Inova Pharmacy Plus at Inova Fair Oaks – 3600 Joseph Siewick Drive, Fairfax
- Kaiser-Permanents Tysons Corner – 8008 Westpark Drive, McLean
- Medicine Chest Pharmacy – 6823 Old Dominion Drive, McLean

Drug Disposal Packets, or deactivation kits, are also available at multiple locations. Use the packets to neutralize medications which can be then disposed of in the trash. Deactivation kits are available at the North County Human Services Building, 1850 Cameron Glen Drive, Suite 100, Reston, and other locations.

Notices

Congratulations!!

James Madison High School's Students for Environmental Action Club "Stream Team" were featured in the Washington Post for their program to reintroduce brook trout in Virginia streams. Working with Trout Unlimited, a non-profit dedicated to preserving and improving fish habitat, the students collected data on stream conditions, narrowed down their search to the most viable streams, released their classroom-raised fingerling trout, and returned to the site months later to see their results. Trout released last winter were sighted! The Stream Team will continue its mission to revive brook trout in Virginia's streams.
